

Privacy Notice

Our Promise to You

As a client of National Investment Services, you share both personal and financial information with us. Your privacy is important to us, and we are dedicated to safeguarding your personal and financial information.

Information Provided by Clients

In the normal course of doing business, we typically obtain the following non-public personal information about our clients:

- Personal information regarding our clients' identity such as name, address and Tax ID Number;
- Information regarding securities transactions effected by us; and
- Client financial information such as net-worth, assets, income, bank account information and account balances.

How We Manage and Protect Your Personal Information

We do not sell information about current or former clients to third parties, nor is it our practice to disclose such information to third parties unless requested to do so or permitted by a client or client representative or, if necessary, in order to process a transaction, service an account or as permitted by law. We may, however, share information about you with our affiliated companies. Additionally, we may share information with outside companies that perform administrative services for us. However, our arrangements with these service providers require them to treat your information as confidential.

In order to protect your personal information, we maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your personal information. Our Privacy Policy restricts the use of client information and requires that it be held in strict confidence.

Client Notifications

If we change our Privacy Policy with regard to disclosing your confidential information, we are required by law to notify you and provide you a revised notice. Please do not hesitate to contact us with questions about this notice.
